

INDEX

INDEX

ADMINISTRATION OF THE SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' CIVIL RELIEF ACT, Gerald Monsman, 35-42

ALLOWANCES TO DEPENDENTS OF SERVICEMEN IN THE UNITED STATES, Denzel C. Cline, 1-8

Allowances to servicemen's dependents administration of, 4-6
 amounts of, 2-3
 as affected by Pay Readjustment Act, 3-4 Australian system, 14
 British system
     administration of, 13-14
     cessation of allowances, 14
     cost of, 20
     dependents' (other than family) allowances computation of, 12
         eligibility for, 12
         government contribution based on soldier's allotment, 12 development of, 9-10
     family allowances
         amounts of, 11-12, 19
         based on serviceman's pay, 10-11 government contribution based on soldier's allotment, 11 prewar, 9
     family distinguished from other dependents, 10, 12 liberalization of, 9-10, 20-21 numbers of applications and grants, 19-20 War Service Grant
     computation and basis of, 11-12
     defined, 10
 Canadian system, 15
 comparison of British and Dominion systems, 14-15 comparison of British and United States systems, 15-17
 cost of, 7-8
 effective period of, 6
 eligibility for, 2-3, 5, 6
 government contribution to, 2-3
 New Zealand system, 14-15 relative significance of, in U. S. and Great Britain, 18-19 servicemen's allotments for, compulsory and voluntary, 2-3, 15, 16
See also Servicewomen

Anderson, John, 11

BENEFITS TO WOMEN'S ARMY AUXILIARY CORPS, 156-157

BODFISH, MORTON, The Soldier and Real Estate Leases, 58-61

BRECHT, ROBERT P., Collective Bargaining and Re-employment of Veterans, 94-103

Breining, Harold W., quoted, 74

BROWNE, HAROLD F., Company Policies Affecting Employees in Service, 22-27

BUEHLER, ALFRED G., Military Pensions, 128-135

CARTWRIGHT, MORSE A., Re-education of the Returned Soldier and Sailor, 111-121

Civil actions against servicemen institution of suit, 30-31 judgment for want of appearance, 31 postponement of trial and judgment, 31-33 stay of enforcement of tax liens, 52-53 stay of execution on judgment, 33 stay of proceedings re mortgage obligations, 51-52

Civil obligations, wartime relief from in Great Britain applies to both servicemen and civilians, 62 protection of debtors under Courts (Emergency Powers) Acts, 63-64
 under Liabilities (War Time) Adjustment Act of 1941, 64
     administration of, 65-66
     distinguished from bankruptcy, 65, 66 in evacuation areas, 66-67 protection of tenants, 67-68

Civil obligations of servicemen in Great Britain, payable by Government, 11, 16 moratorium relief from as affecting consumer credit, 43-50 distinguished from bankruptcy, 28
     during Civil War and first World War, 28-29 extended beyond period of service, 33, 51-52 obligations not canceled by, 28, 43, 54 re leased property, 30, 58-61 re life insurance, 30
 re mortgages, 30, 40, 51-57 re tax claims, 30
 tends to additional moratoria, 59 voluntary adjustment of, 32, 35, 49-50, 53, 56, 60

See also Civil actions against servicemen; Consumer credit

Clark, Evans, cited, 56

Cleveland, Grover, 130

CLINE, DENZEL C., Allowances to Dependents of Servicemen in the United States, 1-8

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AND RE-EMPLOYMENT OF VETERANS, Robert P. Brecht, 94-103

COMPANY POLICIES AFFECTING EMPLOYEES IN SERVICE, Harold F. Browne, 22-27

Conant, R. J. E., quoted, 10

Consumer credit amount of, owed by servicemen, 44 attitudes of servicemen toward, 49-50 credit extension as affected by Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act, 48-49 credit judgment, 46-47 credit psychology, 45-48 factors in shrinkage of consumer debt, 48 rates for, limited for servicemen, 39, 43 restrictions on, under Regulation W, 44, 48 status of installment contracts and small loans under Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act, 38-40

CONSUMER CREDIT AND THE SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' CIVIL RELIEF ACT, M. R. Neifeld, 43-50

Court decisions
re postponement of trial of servicemen, 31, 32
re stay of execution of judgment against servicemen, 33

Cripps, Stafford, 11

Delsius, J. Gordon, cited, 44

Demobilization, dislocations caused by, 111-112

Dependents of servicemen
British, enjoy supplementary real income, 18-19
classification of, 2-3
factors in maintaining their prewar homes, 60-61
provision for, in newspaper industry, 99 relation of, to Selective Service, 6-7 relief of, under Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act, 30, 36-40, 53
re rental problems, 37-38, 58

See also Allowances to servicemen's dependents; Civil obligations, wartime relief from in Great Britain; Postwar compensation to veterans—pensions; Servicemen's allotments for dependents; Servicewomen

Disabled servicemen
British allowances for training and dependents of, 18 rehabilitation of a responsibility of the Federal Government, 115, 120-121 after first World War, 112, 120

Draft selection, preference shown to men with families, 6-7

Education and training of veterans a responsibility of educational groups, 115, 116 agencies and programs for, 116-117, 118-119 counseling service, 116, 117 financing and administration of, 114-115 for personal adjustment, 116 immediate preparation for, 112, 116, 117, 118 necessity for, 112-113
range of training needs, 116, 117, 119 studies of, by Commission on Post-War Training and Adjustment, 113-114 training of counselors, teachers, and administrators, 117-118

See also Disabled servicemen; In-service education and training

Edwards, W., 14

Elizabeth, Queen of England, 129

Employer subvention of servicemen does not affect dependents' allowances in U. S., 16

management attitudes toward, 22-24, 27, 97 may reduce government allowances to dependents in Britain, 16 payment of insurance premiums, 25, 80-81, 96, 99

policies re executives, 26 policies re Maritime Service, 26-27 policies re women, 26

separation pay, 24-25, 98-99

See also Re-employment of servicemen

Evans, Bette, 152

Family allowances, see Allowances to servicemen's dependents

FAMILY ALLOWANCES: AN ANGLO-AMERICAN CONTRAST, Helen Tarasov, 9-21

Federal civil service employees, number of, 109

FINANCIAL RECOGNITION OF EX-SERVICEMEN, John G. Herndon, 122-127

FISHER, ERNEST M., The Serviceman and the Mortgage Market, 51-57

Garner, John Nance, 124

Gore, Albert, 127

Group insurance cancellation of, for servicemen, 25, 99 high rates on, for servicemen, 25, 80 premiums paid by employers for servicemen, 25, 80-81, 96

Hamilton, A. N., cited, 48

Harrison, Benjamin, 130

Hartley, Fred A., 127

Health services for servicewomen, 153-154

Heckman, A. A., cited, 46

Hepner, Harry W., cited, 46

HERNDON, JOHN G., Financial Recognition of Ex-servicemen, 122-127

Hibbard, Benjamin Horace, cited, 143, 144

HINES, FRANK T., Insurance Protection Under Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act, 69-75
—, National Service Life Insurance, 83-93

Hobby, Oveta Culp, 157

Housing, scarcity of, caused by war, 62
See also Land and homes for veterans;
Real estate

Income
 civilian wage rates, U. S. and Britain, 17-18 comparison of service pay with civilian wages, U. S. and Britain, 17-18 of servicemen
 pay rates, 3, 15
 British, 11, 15
 British and U. S. compared, 20 supplementary income, British and U. S. compared, 17-19

Income tax
 deferment of, for servicemen, 30, 126 exemption higher for servicemen than for civilians, 15 postwar credit for servicemen, 126

In-service education and training an aid to postwar adjustment, 118, 154-155, 157 training within industry, 119

Installment contracts, see Consumer credit

Insurance, see Group insurance; Life insurance; Social insurance

INSURANCE PROTECTION UNDER SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' CIVIL RELIEF ACT, Frank T. Hines, 69-75

JAMISON, CHARLES L., Re-employment of Ex-servicemen in Public Positions, 104-110

Johnsen, Julia E., cited, 122

Johnson, Edwin C., 125

Kennedy, Martin J., 126

KLINE, CHESTER A., The Life Insurance Policy During Wartime, 76-82

Labor unions
 effort of, to protect servicemen's interests, 94 significance of, 101-103 provisions in agreements of for dependents of servicemen, 99 for servicemen: seniority, re-employment, separation pay, insurance benefits, 96-99 for workers in war jobs, 100-101

LAND AND HOMES FOR RETURNING SERVICEMEN, David T. Rowlands, 143-151

Land and homes for veterans Canadian program for, 147-149
 principles of, 144
 purposes of, 147
 grants not utilized by veterans, 143-144 motives for land grants, 143, 144, 146, 147, 149
 New Zealand program for, 149-150
 principles of, 144

United States policy regarding contrasted with Canadian and New Zealand policies, 146 history of preferences, 143, 144-145 questions to be decided, 150-151 should have rehabilitation as its goal, 146-147 state systems, 145-146

See also Housing; Postwar compensation for veterans; Real estate

Landlords and lessees, see Real estate

Lane, Thomas J., 126

Legal aid for servicemen and their dependents in Great Britain, 68
 necessity for, 36
 organization of, 41-42
 types of problems: rent, installment contracts, loans, mortgages, insurance, marital relations, 37-40

Legislation
 benefiting servicemen
   in Civil War, 28
   in World War I, 29
   in World War II, 1-4, 22
   re postwar compensation for veterans of World War I, 122-124 re re-employment of veterans, 94, 104-105 veteran preference laws, 107-108
   Veterans' Land Act of 1942 (Canadian), 147

British
 Courts (Emergency Powers) Acts, 62-64
 Liabilities (War Time) Adjustment Act of 1941, 64-67
 Rent Acts, 67-68
See also Pay Readjustment Act of 1942; Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act

Life insurance
 for servicemen
 National Service Life Insurance
 advantages of, 92
 benefits are in addition to pensions, 93 compared with War Risk Insurance, 90-92 cost of, to Government, 92-93
 coverage of, 89-90, 154
 features of, 80, 87-89
 financing of, 89
 open to most servicewomen, 154 premium rates of, 92 proposal for deferment of premiums on, 126-127 provided by the Government, 25 schedule of monthly payments to beneficiaries by age, 91 premium payment methods, 81 guarantee by Government, 69 undesirable, 81
 payment by employers, 25 procedure for death claims, 81-82 protection of, under Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act, 39, 40
 administration of, 73-74
 compared with policy provisions, 69-70 government experience under 1918 act, 70-71 importance of, 74-75

 persons protected, 71-72 policies protected, 72-73 weaknesses of, under 1940 act, 71

United States Government Life (converted) Insurance financing and features of, 86-87 present coverage under, 87

War Risk Insurance (1917) as benefiting private life insurance, 93 compared with National Service Life Insurance, 90-92 coverage under, 85
 features of, 83-85
 financing of, 85
 recent changes in policies, 76 war clauses in policies Canadian and British practice regarding, 78 diversity of, 77-78
 effort toward uniformity of, 78-79 limitations of, 79-80
 necessity for, 76-77
See also Group insurance

LIFE INSURANCE POLICY DURING WARTIME, THE, Chester A. Kline, 76-82

Loans, see Consumer credit

Lynch, Walter A., 125

McAfee, MILDRED H., Women's Reserves, 152-155

Mackenzie, Ian A., cited, 144

Marital relations as affected by compulsory allotment for Class A dependents of servicemen, 40 waiting periods for marriage licenses waived for servicemen, 40

May, Andrew J., 125

Medlicott, Frank, quoted, 12, 13

MILITARY PENSIONS, Alfred G. Buehler, 128-135

Milner, James, 11, 14

MONSMAN, GERALD, Administration of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act, 35-42

MORATORIA AND THE SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' CIVIL RELIEF ACT, Robert H. Skilton, 28-34

Morrison, J. G., 17

Mortgagees and mortgagors, see Real estate

Myrdal, Alva, cited, 9

NATIONAL SERVICE LIFE INSURANCE, Frank T. Hines, 83-93

NEIFELD, M. R., Consumer Credit and the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act, 43-50

O'Leary, James A., 125

Osborn, Frederick H., 112

Pay rates for servicemen, see Income Pay Readjustment Act of 1942 as affecting dependents' allowances, 3-4 solves rental problems for commissioned officers' dependents, 60

Pensions, military, see Postwar compensation to veterans

Ploeser, Walter C., 125

Postwar compensation to veterans demand for, 122, 125
 a form of political pressure, 128-130 following World War I, 122-124 past forms of, 122
 pensions
 costs of, 131-132
 demand for, not eliminated by War Risk Insurance, 86 distribution of, by wars, 132 history of, 129-131
 number of pensioners, 132
 principles of, 132-133
 rates of payments to veterans' dependents, 93 reasons for, 129
 relation of, to social insurance, 133-135 types of, 128
 proposed forms of, 136
 bond purchase credit, 126 continuation of pay, 125 deferment of insurance premiums, 126-127 income tax credit, 126
See also Land and homes for veterans; Social insurance

Pressure groups: war veterans, 128-130

Rates
 for consumer credit limitation of, for servicemen, 39, 43 of allowances to servicemen's dependents British Dominions, 14-15
 Great Britain, 9, 11-12
 United States, 2-4
 of payments under National Service Life Insurance, 91 of pensions to veterans' dependents, 93 on group life insurance, high for servicemen, 25, 80 pay rates of servicemen, see Income premium rates for National Service Life Insurance, 92

Real estate
 as affected by Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act added risk to mortgage lenders, 56-57 dependents of servicemen included in some provisions, 53, 58 provisions affecting title to property, 53 status of landlord and tenant, 30 attitudes of real estate men, 59-60 discretion of courts regarding, 58 relief to landlords, 30, 54, 58-59 stay of eviction proceedings, 37-38, 58 termination of leases, 59 status of mortgagee and mortgagor, 30, 40, 54 coverage of mortgage provisions of the act, 55-56

 discretion of courts regarding, 52, 55 factors affecting ability to meet obligation, 54-55 stay of enforcement of obligations, 51-52 voluntary adjustments possible, 53, 56 status of mortgages insured by Federal Housing Administration, 57 stay of enforcement of tax liens, 52-53 wholesome effect of rental sections of the act, 60-61 estimates of total mortgage indebtedness outstanding, 56
 in Great Britain
 control of rents, 67 protection against eviction, 67-68 wartime status of mortgagees and mortgagors, 64 involved in rent-controlled houses, 68
See also Housing; Land and homes for veterans

RE-EDUCATION OF THE RETURNED SOLDIER AND SAILOR, Morse A. Cartwright, 111-121

RE-EMPLOYMENT OF EX-SERVICEMEN IN PUBLIC POSITIONS, Charles L. Jamison, 104-110

Re-employment of servicemen as affecting workers taking their places, 100-101, 108-109 government interest in, 94 in public positions as affecting efficiency of public service, 106, 107, 108-110
 cost of, 109-110
 difficulties of, 105-107, 109 state reinstatement laws, 104-105, 106-107 veteran preference would be more desirable, 107-108 legal provision for, 22, 94-95, 104-105
 inadequacy of, 95-96
 terms of, 22, 95-96, 104 seniority status, 24, 95, 96-97 specified in union agreements, 96-99

Reynolds, Robert R., 125

Roosevelt, Franklin D., 94, 124 quoted, 136

ROWLANDS, DAVID T., Land and Homes for Returning Servicemen, 143-151

Sakmann, Marianne, cited, 9

SANDERS, ROWLAND FREDERICK JOHN, Wartime Relief from Civil Obligations in Great Britain, 62-68

Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, provides for re-employment of servicemen, 22, 94, 104

SERVICEMAN AND THE MORTGAGE MARKET, THE, Ernest M. Fisher, 51-57

Servicemen's allotments for dependents compulsory and voluntary, 2-3, 15
 in Great Britain
 government contribution contingent on, 11, 12, 20 graduated according to pay, 11 optional, 15

Servicemen's Dependents Allowance Act of 1942 scope and provisions of, 1-3

Servicewomen
 British, covered by unemployment insurance, 140 British, paid at two-thirds of men's rates, 11 covered by Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act, 29-30, 154, 156 dependents' eligibility for all allowances in U. S. and Britain, 12, 15, 152-153, 156 employer attitudes toward, 26 excluded from certain benefits, 153, 156 in-service education and training of, for postwar adjustment, 154-155, 157 medical care for, 153-154 most servicewomen eligible for National Service Life Insurance, 154 WAAC members, benefits open to, 156-157

SKILTON, ROBERT H., Moratoria and the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act, 28-34 cited, 44

Smith, Reginald Heber, cited, 35

Social insurance coverage of servicemen by, 133-135 unemployment insurance for veterans a Federal responsibility, 140 British system of, 140 problems of: rate, duration, total amount, and eligibility, 140-141 proposed Federal legislation for, 140 state provisions for, 137-138
 inadequacy of, 138-139

SOLDIER AND REAL ESTATE LEASES, THE, Morton Bodfish, 58-61

Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act administration of, a legal aid responsibility, 36
 coverage of, 29-30, 154
 effective date of act and amendments, 29, 70 effectiveness of, 35 increasing importance of, 33-34 information needed by servicemen regarding, 36-37 nature and purpose of, 28, 43-44, 54, 58 sources on technicalities of, 44 superseded relief clauses of previous laws, 70 weaknesses of 1940 act, leading to amendments of 1942, 71

See also Civil actions against servicemen; Civil obligations of servicemen; Consumer credit; Insurance; Real estate

Stewart, Dwight A., cited, 45

Taft, Robert A., 126

TARASOV, HELEN, Family Allowances: An Anglo-American Contrast, 9-21

Thomason, R. Ewing, quoted, 4

Tinker, J. J., quoted, 10

Twiney, Linn Kenneth, cited, 44

Unemployment insurance, see Social insurance

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE AND THE RETURNING SERVICEMAN, William H. Wandel, 136-142

Van Zandt, James E., 125

Veteran preference more desirable than compulsory reinstatement, 107-108

Wages, see Income

WANDEL, WILLIAM H., Unemployment Insurance and the Returning Serviceman, 136-142

WARTIME RELIEF FROM CIVIL OBLIGATIONS IN GREAT BRITAIN, Rowland Frederick John Sanders, 62-68

Wiesner, Richard O., cited, 44

Willink, Henry U., 19; quoted, 13

Women

British

in servicemen's families, benefit by social provisions, 18-19 wages of, lower than men's, 18 legal status of servicemen's wives as affecting allowances, 2-3

British and U. S. systems compared, 16, 19

See also Servicewomen

WOMEN'S RESERVES, Mildred H. McAfee, 152-155

Workers taking places of servicemen costliness of, 110

protection of seniority rights of, 100-101

temporary status of, 100-101, 108-109

Wyckoff, DeWitte, 51

York, Christopher, quoted, 14